Timothy Foley was the Director of the United States Marine Band from 1996 until his retirement from the Marine Corps in July 2004. During his 36-year career, Colonel Foley served "The President's Own" as a clarinetist, assistant director and as the Marine Band's 26th director. As Director of the Marine Band, he also served as the Music Advisor to the White House, regularly conducting the Band at the Executive Mansion. He received his early musical training from Anthony Gigliotti, principal clarinetist of the Philadelphia Orchestra. Before joining the Marine Band he attended the Oberlin Conservatory of Music and played with the American Wind Symphony in Pittsburgh. He currently serves as conductor of the University of Maryland Symphonic Wind Ensemble.
